

NARS Ham of the Year

Purpose: This award is given to a person who has shown outstanding performance and help, for NARS, their fellow HAM operators, and the community.

Rules:

1. A NARS (Northwest Amateur Radio Society) member in good standing.
2. A person who receives the award is not eligible to win it again for 5 years.
3. Nomination for this award should take place before the December meeting.
4. The current award winner is responsible for holding the election at the December meeting.
5. The current award winner is responsible for updating the plaque for the next winner. The cost of engraving the new name will be reimbursed to the member.
6. The award will be announced and awarded by the current award winner during the January banquet meeting.

If the current award winner is not available, they can work with the Board of Directors to choose someone who is not nominated and has won the award before.

The shop where the plaque was made can do the work right on the plaque. You do not have to remove the brass plate.
